

PDRC Online Winter Dressage – Closing Sunday 9th of May 2021

PDRC has teamed up again with BD-listed dressage judge Jade Paterson (from Dressage for Everyone) for this event. Ride your test at home (or anywhere really), get a friend to film it, submit your video and Jade will judge your test and send back comments.

Please ensure you adhere to the current Covid restrictions and guidance when filming your test, especially if you are travelling for arena hire. This show is run in accordance with the current BRC Rules so please check tack rules on our website and wear an approved riding hat and long riding boots/gaiters. Although wearing a show jacket is not compulsory, smart dress is required (further guidelines on website).

Jade has designed her own tests and there are 4 levels to choose from:

1. Intro – test Intro X
2. Preliminary – test Prelim 4
3. Novice – test Novice 10
4. Elementary – test Elementary 22

You will find the tests on the new PDRC website.

More about Jade Paterson

I am a coach and judge based in East Lothian, Scotland. Usually out with Covid times, I ride and train with a small string of horses for owners and my own which compete at BD, BS, showing and eventing. I started my horse career working on a livery yard then moved on to groom for an international event rider before setting up as a freelance groom in my local area. I offered a variety of grooming services as well as exercising of horses which progressed to more riding and schooling of horses. During this time, I worked through my BHS stages but following a riding accident in 2017 I was out of the saddle for while so I spent the time to complete my AI (BHS Level 3 Coach in Complete Horsemanship and Riding) followed by my UKCC2 qualification. I began my judge training with BD and passed as a List 5 judge and the youngest judge to ever become listed aged 26! In 2019 I continued my training with BD and became a BDCC2 accredited coach and more recently completed my training as a BD Youth Coach Assessor. In 2019 I was nominated as one of Scotland's Most Popular coaches and in the same year became the Scottish Style Jumping Champion. As well as coaching and riding BD I regularly coach pony club, riding club, show jumping and cross-country clinics and compete in a variety of disciplines too. I am keen to encourage everyone to give dressage a go and online dressage is a great place to start in a more relax atmosphere at home for horse and rider.
