Plough Off Plot Draws (World Style, Classic, Vintage and Juniors) will take place after announcement of results on the Saturday evening. Anyone who is not present to draw their plot number (or who has not arranged for someone to do this on their behalf) will lose their plot and the next highest placed plougher will be invited to draw a number. The £20 Plough Off Entry Fee is due to be paid at this time.

Competitors wishing to compete both days will be permitted to do so but they must plough in classes entered and will not be allowed to go forward to plough off.

PRIZEGIVINGS - Any trophies or rosettes not collected by winner, or person nominated by winner, will be held by the secretary for safe-keeping. Winner(s) should contact secretary to arrange for delivery (any costs to be paid by plougher).

FIRST DAY - SATURDAY 26th OCTOBER

Classes 1, 2, 3, 3B, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 12 will be scored over two days, with no scores announced on first day.

The highest placed ploughers in classes 1, 2, 3, 3B, 4, 6, 7 and 8 will draw plots to go through to the Plough Offs (and will pay an additional entry fee for the second day's ploughing). Numbers going through will depend on number of entries.

Competitors outwith Scotland competing in CLASSES 1, 3, 4 will compete in a Visitors Plough Off on the Second Day (and will pay an additional entry fee for the second day's ploughing).
